

SALISBURY GETS NEXT CONVENTION

Retail Merchants Adjourn at Elizabeth City After Electing Officers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., June 17.— The seventh annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of North Carolina held its closing session this morning aboard the steamer Virginia, which conveyed the delegates and visitors on a sail down the Pasquotank River for a visit to Old Brick House, the historic home of Edward Leach, the "Bluebeard" pirate.

Salisbury was selected for the next meeting place. Raleigh was close second, with several other leading towns receiving complimentary votes.

The following officers were elected:
E. E. Broughton, Raleigh, president; J. F. Morris, Winston-Salem, vice-president; E. L. Harris, Raleigh, secretary; John R. Hoffman, Burlington, transporter; A. B. Justice, Charlotte, attorney. Vice-presidents, by congressional districts: First, James W. Knight, Elizabeth City; Second, B. G. Hicks, Louisburg; Third, Leslie Wied, Goldsboro; Fourth, J. B. Pearce, Raleigh; Fifth, A. H. Moffitt, High Point; Sixth, A. M.
Hall, Wilmington; Seventh, A. T. Morris, Thomasville; Eighth, T. B. Brown, Salisbury; Ninth, C. W. Parker, Charlotte; Tenth, S. Lipinsky, Asheville.

Important resolutions were passed on freight rates, homestead laws and exemptions, laws to prevent defrauding merchants by consumers by ordering merchandise sent on approval, gift schemes and trading stamps; deeper waterways, parcels post and giving rebates by merchants.

The following important resolution affecting the Corporation Commission was passed:

"That the Corporation Commission be requested to employ some competent person, who shall devote his entire time to the study of the freight question and prepare statistics that will present the matter in a clear and definite manner, and that such information be given publicly through official channels."

GETS TEN YEARS.

Monroe Dehart Guilty of Murder in Second Degree.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STUART, VA., June 17.—The trial of the case of the Commonwealth against Monroe Dehart, charged with the murder of C. P. McAlexander, proved to be very short, but rather a spirited one. The taking of evidence was begun at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, and was concluded, both for the Commonwealth and the defense, in a little over three hours.
Court then adjourned till next morning.

Wednesday was taken up in the argument of instructions and argument before the jury. The arguments before the jury lasted four hours. The case was given to the jury at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. After deliberating for about one hour, the jurors were called into the courtroom, and rendered their verdict, finding the prisoner guilty of murder in the second degree, and fixing his punishment at ten years in the penitentiary.

Dehart's counsel had offered to accept an agreement verdict of ten years without a trial, but the Commonwealth would not agree to it.

NANTICOKE SAILS.

Vessel, Freed from Suspicion, Leaves for Venezuela.

NORFOLK, VA., June 17.—The steamer Nanticoke, which had set several departments of the Federal government agog with activity to forestall any possible filibuster move-sailed from Franklin early to-day for Venezuela. The little craft was released from her detention as a suspicious vessel in the result of information received by the State Department yesterday that she and the tug Dispatch had been bought by the Carazza government for commercial use on Lake Maracaibo. The Nanticoke will be joined in Albemarle Sound by the Dispatch, which to-day proceeded through the canals from Norfolk.
The revenue cutter Pamlico, which had been watching the Nanticoke, called for Newbern, N. C. The Federal grand jury, which had been held at Norfolk on the possibility that it might have to consider indictments for violations of the neutrality laws, was finally discharged to-day.

There still remains about $43,000 worth of merchandise that must be sold in two weeks. In order that we can be ready for our new building which we are to occupy at 313 E. Broad Street we could sell our entire stock out to great advantage in bulk, but as our sale has been such a tremendous success we have concluded to give the people of Richmond and surrounding country the benefit of the remaining portion of the stock.

Store will be closed until Saturday, June 19th, to rearrange and mark all merchandise at greater reductions.

GREATEST REDUCTIONS! PRICES SLAUGHTERED!

We can mention but a few of the thousands of articles that can be found here at extremely low prices on our opening day, Saturday, June 19th. Goods will be found as advertised, and if not entirely satisfactory to the purchaser, money will be refunded at any time during the two weeks' sale. Over forty-three years of legitimate business methods and fair dealing backs up every statement and article sold.
